The image consists of a vertical column of black and white pixels. It features a series of horizontal bars of varying widths, creating a visual effect similar to a bar chart or a waveform. The bars are white against a black background. The widths of the bars fluctuate, with some being very narrow and others being wider, creating a rhythmic pattern. The overall effect is abstract and digital.

A vertical column of black and white pixels forming a stepped or staircase pattern. The pattern consists of a series of horizontal bars of varying lengths, starting from a short bar at the top and increasing in length downwards. The bars are composed of black pixels against a white background. The overall effect is reminiscent of a digital signal or a stylized step function.
